

Bucky's Construction Update as of July 25, 2016

- The masonry work on the main building has been installed to approximately the bearing level height of the roof trusses.
- The excavation is complete for the conveyor mechanism in the car wash portion of the building is complete and they are ready to start setting up the concrete forms.
- The tank contractor is installing the underground piping for the fuel system delivery system.
- ComEd has set the permanent service pole in the northwest corner of the site and is ready to install the transformer.

Please advise if you have any questions.